OCTOBER

Four persons were injured Monday when the driver lost control in a 90-degree left turn on Coffee County Highway 11, near the Coffee County Lake. Driver of the car, according to witnesses was Lizzie Crawford, age 48, of Union Springs, Alabama.

Mrs. Crawford was among the injured, as was Alonza Simmons, Cleon Simmons and Inez Simmons. They were taken to the Elba General Hospital by the Elba Rescue Squad. Two others in the car were not hurt. They told this newspaper they didn't think the injured were seriously hurt.

Trooper Willie J. White investigated the accident and said the party was enroute from Brundidge to Andalusia and got on the wrong road in Elba. They had stopped minutes before and asked a man for directions on the best way to get back on the road to Andalusia. This, according to White, is why they were traveling on the unfamiliar road.

The Elba Elementary-Middle School PTO met Monday night in the cafeteria of the elementary school with a standing-room-only crowd attending. The business meeting was short, the entertainment by 5th-grade singers enjoyed, and the parents visited the classrooms of their children and talked freely with the teachers.

PTO President Sandy Santa Rosa presided over the meetings.

HORNSBY MOTION LOSES 4-2

Commission Votes Down 1¢ Sales Tax

The Coffee County Commission met in a special "adjourned meeting" on Monday, September 29, at the courthouse in Elba, and as expected, the discussion centered around an upcoming court hearing with Circuit Judge Arthur Gamble, of Greenville.

Judge Gamble was assigned to hear a suit filed by two Enterprise residents seeking a jail to be constructed in Enterprise, and though the court ordered the jail built some time ago, it is still only in the planning stage. The hearing next week will be a progress report of what steps have been taken to comply with the court order.

The first item discussed at Monday's meeting was a controversial contract with Dothan architect Joseph Donofrio. The architect was awarded a contract on October 4, 1976, to design a jail to be built in Coffee County, (at that time a site in Elba had been selected) and Donofrio contends the contract is still valid. The Commission has repeatedly questioned the validity of the contract, and that action has prompted Donofrio to acquire legal counsel. The dispute was discussed again Monday, and action was taken that will undoubtedly put the Commission in yet another legal battle!

"When the Commission signed the contract back in 1976, it was not their intention to state if a jail was built 100 years later, Donofrio would still be the architect," said County Attorney Warren Rowe. "There is a possibility the Commission may wind up in a lawsuit, no matter what you do. There is an escape clause in the contract where you can buy your way out, but I don't think the Commission should do it. My recommendation is to simply void the contract."

Commissioner Bennie Beckham stated, "Everything has an expiration date," and Probate Judge James I. Sawyer, added, "I have had 10 or 12 letters from architects expressing an interest in getting the contract."

Commissioner Don Smith stated, "If Donofrio is an employee of Coffee County, I make a motion we terminate his contract."

"I'm not opposed to Donofrio," remarked Beckham, "I just feel due to the lapse of time, we need to start again. Every firm in the area should be given a chance to bid on the contract. I second the motion!"

The motion passed on a vote of 4-2, with the opposing votes cast by Commissioners Rex Boutwell and Gilmer Grant. Voting in favor of the motion were Smith, Beckham, Jack Hornsby and Max J. Reeves.

"We now have no architect," said Rowe, "and we need one." The Commission voted unanimously to send out bids to hire a new architect for a jail to be built in Enterprise, but avoided setting a date the invitations to bid would be mailed, and also when they would be opened.

"Now we need to tell Judge Gamble how we plan to finance the building of this new jailhouse," said Rowe.

Commissioner Jack Hornsby stated, "I don't see any alternative," and Judge Sawyer told the Commission, "Our new budget is already in the hole, we don't have enough money to build a jail."

"I have done extensive research on the options available to the Commission," said Attorney Rowe, "and we have four ways to finance the construction. One - we can pay it out of the General Fund; two - there are provisions in the State Code to pass a sales tax; there is a difference of opinion on the legality of imposing such a tax. Bill Baxley stated it could be done, while Attorney General Charles Graddick says 'No! I disagree with Graddick. Option number three is an Ad Valorem tax, but its legality is questionable. Finally, number four is to form a building commission, have someone build a jail and lease it to you."

"I think a sales tax is the best method, because you could pay for the jail in only five years and then take the tax off," added Rowe. "A 1-cent sales tax would bring in $1 million a year. Some say a sales tax is a most unfair tax, but it is spread among everybody. There is a clause to exempt some major purchases such as trucks and farm equipment, and I think it would be at least 18 months to 2 years before a penny is collected."

Commissioner Jack Hornsby then made a motion to pass a Tax Ordinance of 1 cent, and it was seconded by Commissioner Reeves. However, when the vote was taken, the motion was defeated 4-2, as Commissioners Smith, Grant, Boutwell and Beckham all voted "no!"

"At one time I stated I would go along with the sales tax," stated Beckham, "but this is premature. Let the new Commission make up its own mind."

"I think these people in Colorado (NCO) are part of the reason we're in trouble," declared Smith, "and I think we should do the looking around ourselves and leave them out of it."

Beckham echoed his feelings and stated "I think we should keep the Federal folks out of planning the new jail."

Before leaving, Rowe said in a rather subdued tone, "I'll tell the Judge we have agreed to let bids on an architect, and that we have chosen a site."

Sheriff Brice Paul addressed the Commission and asked it to reconsider picking up the salary of special investigator Dennis Hobbs. Hobbs was being paid under a $14,000 Federal grant, but it ended on Friday, September 26, and as Sheriff Paul put it, "He got his walking papers."

Paul stated that in the last 8 months Hobbs was responsible for the confiscation of over $250,000 in drugs and nearly $70,000 in stolen goods.

"I hate to see this valuable program stopped," stated Paul, "because his expert investigative work has led to these findings."

Sheriff Paul reported his department would put up $5,000 to help pay the salary, and said the money would come from the sale of contraband and the auctioning of cars. The Commission approved the continuance of Hobbs' employment until February 1.

In other action the Commission: ***sent out bids on pipe and bridge material, and ***approved the budget.

Donald Sykes is not a hospital patient, in spite of the cast on his leg in the above photo. He is donating a pint of blood at the Red Cross Bloodmobile on Tuesday of this week. There was no danger of Donald becoming lonesome as he donated the life-saving fluid, because a host of his fellow classmates were either helping collect the blood, dishing out cookies, or donating blood themselves.

Car Tags Now On Sale In County

Tag decals for 1981 went on sale Wednesday, October 1, at the Coffee County Probate Offices in Elba and Enterprise, and will continue on sale until November 15. After the November 15 deadline, fines of up to $25 will be charged to late-decal buyers.

For a few county residents, the decals purchased now will only be good until January, when a new staggered tag purchasing system begins in the county. Beginning in January, each vehicle owner will purchase his tag or decal in a month determined by the first initial of his last name, which will spread tag-buying over the entire year, and put an end to the long lines common in the current system.

Chief Probate Clerk Nell Harvison reports that persons who purchase decals this year will get a temporary 1981 decal and a sticker which will remind them when to return to the courthouse next year to purchase another annual sticker. They will also pay a full year's tax on vehicles, but only a pro rata share of the cost of the tag.

Under the new system, the tag purchasing schedule will be as follows: Persons with names beginning in A & D will return to buy new tags in January; B in February; C & E in March; F, G & N in April; H & O in May; M & I in June; P & L in July; J, K & R in August; Q, S & T in September; and U, V, W, X, Y & Z in October.

Probate Judge James L. Sawyer announced his offices will be open on Saturdays from 8 - 12, and on Noon hours on weekdays.

As shown above, work is progressing on repair work on Highway 87, North Troy Road. Officials predict the road will be re-opened within a few weeks, as scheduled.

The Future Homemakers of America recently held its first meeting of the year in the Home Ec. department. At that time they elected a nominating committee to select nominees for officers. Five members were elected to this committee. The club is expecting to have forty-five members to participate.

Mrs. Hilton, the club's advisor, and the members are planning several service projects and fun activities that will be an educational experience for all of the members.

The first program of the year will be presented on October 6, 1980, by Mrs. Amorette Bullard from Merle Norman Cosmetics in Elba.

Dove season opened on September 20, 1980 and for the next several weeks we will be writing about dove hunting in Coffee County and the surrounding counties.

You can shoot doves from twelve o'clock noon until sunset from September 20 until September 30 in Pike and Crenshaw counties. Starting October 1 until November 5, doves can be shot from a half-hour before sunrise until sunset in these same counties. From November 6 until December 18, dove season is closed in Pike and Crenshaw counties, however, on December 19, the season opens again and until January 10, doves can be shot from a half-hour before sunrise until sunset. January 10 is the final day of dove season in Pike and Crenshaw counties.

In Coffee, Covington, Dale and Geneva counties, dove season opens on October 11 and until October 20 doves can be hunted from twelve o'clock noon until sunset. From October 21 until November 30, hunting hours are extended so that you can hunt from a half-hour before sunrise until sunset. Season is closed from December 1 until December 19. On December 20, the season opens again and until January 7 you can hunt from a half-hour before sunrise until sunset. January 7 is the final day of dove season. ## Editorial - School Unity

BY: MARY JO HUSSEY

Even though we consider ourselves prejudiced, we still feel that we are justified in pointing out the fact that Zion Chapel, as a high school, has many great qualities. Perhaps the greatest of these qualities is teacher-student rapport. Rapport, the harmonious accord or relation that makes communication possible, is the factor that sets the stage for some "quality learning." There are many occasions when teachers can be seen with students clustered around them laughing and talking. It is on these occasions that students learn that teachers are also human and that most problems can be worked out by communicating. As a result, students soon have the way cleared, and the path wide open to get the most they can from their studies.

P.T.O. Holds First Meeting

BY: SHERRY WHITE

On September 18, 1980 the Zion Chapel P.T.O. held its first meeting of the year. The meeting was called to order by President Shirley

Grant. Mrs. Opal Stinson then presented the devotion and Paula Black and Kathy McLeod gave the secretary and treasurers reports which were approved. Mr. Randal Myers and the Zion Chapel Rebel Band gave a short concert.

The floor was then opened for old business; however, there wasn't any. In the way of new business it was voted and approved that Mrs. Mary Cape would be hired to teach grades K-3 the fundamentals of music. It was also voted and approved that the P.T.O. would pay for the elementary phone for the year. Parents present agreed they had rather pay for a private line than the teachers have to go to the high school buildings to use the phone in case of an emergency, especially since the teachers cannot leave the students alone and there is no aide to relieve them. The Halloween Carnival to be held October 30 at 6:00, was also discussed and committees were nominated to get this project underway.

FFA Holds Meeting

BY: HAYES WHITE

This year's first FFA meeting came to order on September 18, 1980. The new business was to elect a new treasurer. The reason for this was that the elected treasurer from a previous meeting in May decided not to take Agribusiness. The new treasurer is Lisa Stinson. Lisa and Jackie Rodgers are the only girls participating in this year's Agribusiness class. Other business included a discussion of the different programs Mr. Stewart has planned for future FFA meetings.

EHS Library Council

The EHS Library Club had its second meeting of the 1980-81 school year Thursday, September 25, during activity period. President Calvin Carpenter called the meeting to order, and due to the resignation of the secretary, Delores Kelley, because of a conflict in club schedules, Randy Parker, Vice-President, called the roll and read the minutes of the previous meeting.

The first order of business on the agenda was the election of a new secretary. Lisa Moore was elected and will fill this position.

Calvin Carpenter, as a club president, had previously attended the meeting of other club presidents and school officials to discuss homecoming plans which he then relayed to the club. After his report to the club, it was discussed and voted upon to have an entry in the parade. Members were asked to think of an appropriate them/slogan which would be library-related and inform the club sponsor, Mrs. Calhoun.

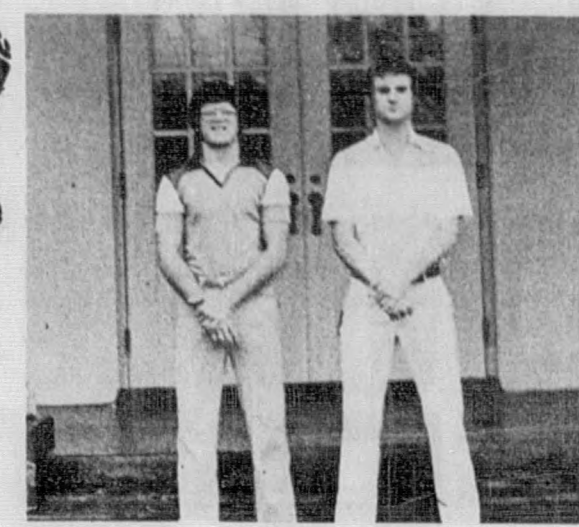

Members were informed of an impending visit from a representative of a novelty company at the October meeting when he will present fund-raising ideas to the club, which will then vote whether or not to take orders for sale to the public. A new member was voted into the club through the normal procedures - those being sponsored by a member and voted upon by the club as a whole. Members were again reminded that dues must be paid by the October meeting. The meeting was then adjourned.

Representative Holley Speaks To BPW

Business and Professional Women's Club met Monday, September 8, 1980 at Holley's Restaurant.

The club president Mrs. Carrie Jacobs called the meeting to order with twelve members present. Club secretary Sybil Stivers read the minutes from the last meeting. Mrs. Mable Lawless delivered a very inspiring devotion after which a delicious meal was enjoyed by all.

President Carrie Jacobs introduced the guest speaker

Representative Jimmy Holley, who gave an interesting and informative talk on agriculture.

After a very long enjoyable evening of fellowship, food and business the meeting was adjourned.

Pilot Club Meets Recently

Holley's Restaurant was the scene Tuesday night, September 23, for the annual "Share Pilot" meeting. Each year the members share the brief history of Pilot International which is one of the five international classified club and service organizations for executive and professional women. There are currently 601 clubs in the United States and seven foreign countries, with 54 clubs in the Alabama District alone.

The first Pilot Club, organized in Macon, Georgia, in 1921, with a charter membership of forty, was formed to encourage the ideal of unselfish service and friendship to mankind. Pilot Clubs were organized rapidly, a tribute to the soundness of the foundation laid by the first club and an evidence of the widespread approval of women of an organization through which they could express their ideals and their ambitions for a better world-community. Headquarters for Pilot International is located in Atlanta, Georgia. The major projects of Pilot International include scholarships for international students, traffic safety education programs co-sponsored by Allstate Foundation and support to agencies and foundations such as meals for millions, project concern, project Hope, Foster Parents, The Arthritis Foundation, The National Foundation-March of Dimes, Salk Institute, Freedoms Foundation, etc. Pilot International is a member agency of the Board of Directors for Care, Inc., and is represented on the Women's Committee of the President's Committee on employment of the handicapped. The heart of Pilot is in the communities where each club serves. In addition to participating in international, national and district projects which interest its members, each Pilot Club selects and directs its own projects to improve the club, social, industrial and commercial welfare of its members. Projects such as health, welfare, youth, senior citizens and safety education are among those initiated and sponsored by Pilot Clubs.

After everyone had enjoyed their meal and the devotion given by Ann Bullard, six of the members shared their experiences at the District Fall Council meeting held at the Governor's House in Montgomery, September 20 and 21. Fall Council is held each year so Pilot members from all over the state can meet and share ideas and experiences of their club. Workshops are held for the projects, internal affairs and outreach division and also general officers and members of the club.

Pilot International Foundation which was established to give aid to the handicapped and aged. Business is also conducted and awards given. Kim Marler from our club was recognized and given an award for being the newest pilot member in attendance.

Those attending the council from the Elba Pilot Club were Gena Binbo and Cynthia Holderfield, who served as doorknobs.

Vickie Bandstra who served as a Paigie, Sandra Carpenter who served as a doorknob, and Susie Holderfield who served as a delegate and Kim Marler, our newest Pilot member. All was not work though as new friendships were made and old ones renewed. All the members returned with more knowledge, much enthusiasm and great new ideas for new projects and services for our club. This they shared with the members unable to attend which strengthened our club's dedication to the goals of Pilot International which are friendship and service.

In closing, the members attending the Fall Council presented the skit they performed for the talent show at the Banquet on Saturday night. It was very humorous and well performed and we were very proud of our talented and enthusiastic pilot members. Their enthusiasm was contagious and left the other members with the determination to make plans to attend the district convention in April 1981 and next year's Fall Council.

Those members enjoying this year's outstanding "Share Pilot" meeting were: Dixie Davis, Sandra Carpenter, Ann Bullard, Susie Holderfield, Cynthia Holderfield, Carol Fudge, Miriam Bowers, Janice Kyle, Vickie Bandstra, Nancy Crowe, Agnes Wilson, Valerie McGuire, Carolyn Mooney, Kim Marler, Gena Binbo and Carrie Jacobs. Guests included Janice Kelley and Judy Kelley.

NEWS from your PHARMACIST

BY: KRIS SCARBOROUGH

Why does the jaw "lock" in lockjaw? This disease is given this name because the muscles of the neck, jaws and throat are always the first to manifest the symptoms. The most accepted name for the disease is tetanus, meaning "rigid."

It is caused by a germ that packs a poison 500 times more deadly than strychnine. Savages of the New Hebrides poisoned their arrowheads with the dirt from crab holes in the swamps. This dirt was found to contain a pure growth of tetanus germs.

All suspicious wounds should receive prompt attention by a doctor. If the wound is contaminated with garden earth, street dust, house dirt or other material that can carry the tetanus germ, an injection of tetanus antitoxin is always advisable.

Around The Town

Mrs. Nellie B. Martin

Time ticks away - life and its experiences are forever changing. People change, too - that was most evident a few days ago at the home of Mrs. Bessie Pearl DeVane on North Troy Highway.

The four sons of the late Comer DeVane and Bessie Pearl met at Mama's after 43 years of separation. The DeVane boys were born and reared in Elba. As time elapsed they seemed to be called away to seek their fame and fortune. However, Eugene was the exception - he seemed to be content in the Elba area. Well, too, there was that certain Coffee County beauty that added special interest in his future.

A special treat was "good seats" at the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville. Too, there were other charming and enjoyable things to do in Nashville.

This was a short week for these two lovely families, and they took advantage of every minute, and now they can reflect back on their holidays in the Great Smoky Mountains.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Earl DeVane, Austin, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Donald DeVane, Mesquite, Texas; and Mr. and Mrs. Wendell DeVane, Grandy, N.C. Their wives - Antoinette, Chris, Peggy and Jenny - seldom were included in the conversation. But from all reports these girls made up for anything that was lacking when they fed them. Too, they were joined for eating and socializing by Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow DeVane of Opp.

Mrs. DeVane, Eugene, Jenny and Wesley were the perfect hosts. As the DeVanes returned to their respective homes, many were the pleasant memories they took with them.

Miss Mooney Initiated Into Zeta Gamma

Angie Parrish Celebrates Second Birthday

Carolyn Sue Mooney of Elba was initiated recently into the Zeta Gamma chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, national honor society in education at Troy State University.

Miss Mooney, the daughter of Mrs. Eva Mooney, is pursuing a degree in early childhood education.

Kappa Delta Pi, the oldest honor group at TSU, recognizes outstanding contributions to education. Members are selected on the basis of personal qualities, educational ideals and sound scholarship. The society endeavors to maintain a high degree of professional fellowship among its members and to quicken growth by honoring achievement in educational work.

After refreshments, the children gathered around to watch Angie open her gifts. Upon leaving each child was presented with a party favor.

Her little friends helped her celebrate were: Tessa and Teresa Hall, Chad and Stephanie Adkins, Chris and Elana Strong, Catherine and Rebecca Jones, Nickie and Nicole Semone, Dina and Dusty Smith, Chara Davis, Clay Martin, Will Oggs, Brad Granham, and her brother Jack and sister Jill. Jama's grandmother's Mrs. William Colvin and her great-aunt Dixie Deal were also there.

The children enjoyed birthday cake which was decorated like a rag doll, potato chips and cake. After watching Jama open her presents each child was given a bag of candy surprises.

Jama is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Windham.

Of all the gifts a friend might treasure, your smile can give the greatest pleasure. So smile - and you'll find when you do. The whole world smiles back at you!

Views From THE PRESSBOX

By: Ricky Mularz
Sports Editor

It's good to have a team doctor at all the football games, and I'm sure Dr. Crook is a fine physician; however, the time has come for him to reach into his little black bag and find a cure for "fumbleitis." The dreaded disease has hit the Elba team hard in the last two weeks, with 13 fumbles popping up, 11 of which were fatal and killed good drives. Help!

All kidding aside, I know all the local arm-chair quarterbacks (myself included) are very concerned about the rash of fumbles. Never fear, folks, you know our coaches and players have a cure and our fears will be put to rest.

Elba chalked up Win Number 4 last week over Dale County, and though it wasn't very pretty, it was a big win. The offense couldn't get running too well and sort of sputtered all night, but it's a good thing we did or we might have scored 100 points. Don Horstead and Bobby English both ran hard and gave it their all, and Don's punt returns excited the entire crowd. On defense, Elba looked awesome in the first half in holding Dale County to no first downs and minus 15 yards in total offense. The front wall of Bane Daniels, Coleman, Suteley and Brunson collapsed on the Warriors on several occasions, and both Ted Horstead and Greg Hudson got some free shots from their linebacking posts. Also, can you remember the last time we put that much pressure on a punter? Our defense is for real!

I got a letter a couple of weeks ago answering my comments about the number of injuries in Little League football. The letter, obviously written by a parent, stated that all equipment is checked to insure proper fit, and all helmets must be stamped "NOC-SAE" approved. It also reported that safety is the first and foremost concern of all involved. I'm glad to know the league does check all the players, and I wish them continued success with their program.

It's funny to sit back this week and listen to all the Auburn fans talk about how they need a new coach. Auburn's 42-0 loss to Tennessee stunned a lot of folks, and really got the wolves stirring around Coach Barfield's door. Over 75,000 people witnessed the rout, with Barfield losing his cool along with a large portion of the crowd. Hang in there, folks, it has got to get better!

The area high school football scene was a little more calm this week, but there were a few games worth mentioning:

***Daleville, a 3A school that is hoping to build a winning tradition by playing a 2A schedule, defeated 3A Geneva 14-6; ***Opp, who has got to be the best 2-2 team in the state, jumped ahead early and crushed Ashford 34-14; ***Troy won 43-28 over Slocomb, but the 2A Red Tops completed 20 of 50 passes and threw a scare into the powerful Trojans; ***Andalusia continued to improve with a 21-7 win over Crestview. The Bulldogs are 4-0 and as good as ever.

A lot of fans got to Dale County quite a bit early last week and settled back for a long, boring wait until gametime. However, the wait was anything but boring, because the Elba High band put on a mini-concert in the stands and got everyone fired up with their great sounding music! The Marching Tigers are better than ever, as is evident by the thundering applause they receive, and remind some of the song they play - "Hot Stuff!"

Ye ole Polish Prognosticator was still a little quiet this week, but he did report he hit on 24 of 30 picks, or 80%. He barely missed the Zion Chapel game (picked 12-6, score was 13-6), and the Laverne win (picked 14-0, score was 13-0), and again this week is looking for bigger and better things.

ELBA VS. GREENVILLE
This one should be quite a game, as unbeaten Greenville comes to town looking to upset the top-ranked Tigers. If Elba doesn't play their best, it could be a long night! Elba 16 - Greenville 8

ZION CHAPEL VS. ARLTON
The Rebels are almost back at full speed following countless injuries, but Arlton is big and tough and not about to let Zion Chapel escape with an upset! Arlton 27 - Zion Chapel 0

NEW BROCKTON VS. FREEPORT
The Gamecocks got shot down last week and should be fighting mad. I don't think Coach Boutwell will let his club lose two in a row. Happy Homecoming! New Brockton 21 - Freeport 6

Elba's Coach Mack Wood Reports That Undeclared Greenville Has Powerful 3A Team

When the Elba Tigers and Greenville Tigers line up to do battle tomorrow night (Friday), both teams will be putting unbeaten records on the line. Elba is 4-0 and ranked first in the state in Class 3A circles, while Greenville owns a 5-0 record and has practically put a lock on the Area 2 crown. When two Tigers tangle, look for some fun to fly!

"Greenville is big and tough," warned Elba's Coach Mack Wood, "and they're as good as any team we've played. They are big, strong and fast, and are a very good 3A football team. Greenville has always had the athletes, but this year they have a new coach and Coach Woodham has really put their program together. They are just plain good!"

"On offense," reported Wood, "they run a power I and a short wing, and mostly use power formations. They run right at you between the ends and are real physical. Greenville has good athletes all over the field. They have a good quarterback and two good receivers, a quick tailback and a huge fullback that is as big as anybody we've got. Coach Woodham likes to play a ball-control game and eat up the clock, but he will come up with a big play on an option or reverse. They'll kind of tell you to sleep and then score in a hurry. They like to use misdirection and will trap, but they'd rather just run you over. To stop 'em, we'll have to play sound on defense, because they've won their games being sound on offense. We'll have to be ready for everything, but at the same time get after them and be real physical. We have to play sound on defense and give it all we've got."

"Defensively," added Wood, "they run a 4-4, with six people standing and only two down linemen. They have a good pursuit defense, cut off the outside game and play real hard on the inside. Greenville stunts every play and moves around all the time. They have as good a defense as we'll face all year! If we hope to move the ball, we'll have to block better and hit folks instead of bumping them. Against them, if we don't block well, we'll be in a whole lot of trouble. We have to play physical with them. The key to our offense will be how well we block. They will try to take our wide game away from us and we'll have to work hard for everything we get."

"We can't beat ourselves," stated Wood, "and we'll have to improve on offense and defense. We have to play a good, sound game from start to finish. I think we're in pretty good shape, so we'll just have to buckle up our chinstraps and get after 'em. It'll be a tough game."

When asked about last week's 42-7 win over Dale County, Coach Wood answered, "I think most of our fumbles were caused by carelessness and recklessness. We want our backs to be reckless, but there's no excuse for swinging the ball around when running. I think we can eliminate our turnovers and I feel confident our kids realize their carelessness."

KINSTON BITES THE DUST 34-0

Samson speedster Eric Johnson (21) finds nowhere to go against the aggressive Kinston defense. Closing in to make the stop are Jimmy Rodgers (32), Kris Bowden (77), Jeff Rhodes (85), Ronald Thorn (72) and Roger Harrison (63).

Luvorne's Carl Massey (34) tries to get outside but finds his path blocked by Brantley's Tim Burnett (88). Brantley lost and saw their record dip to 0-5.

LUVERNE BLANKS BRANTLEY 13-0

The Luvorne Tigers grabbed a 13-0 lead in the opening stanza and held on to claim a hardfought 13-0 win over the Brantley Bulldogs.

The win upped Luvorne's record to 2-3, while the winless Bulldogs fell to 0-5. Luvorne received the opening kick and put together a 16-play, 75-yard touchdown drive that ate up nearly 8 minutes of the clock. The march came entirely on the ground, with speedy halfback Johnny Stroud gaining large chunks of real estate on slashing runs off tackle. George Robison and Charlie Johnson alternated runs with Stroud, but it was

Stroud who scored on a 3-yard plunge. Glen Malo booted the extra-point, and with only 4:25 left in the first quarter Luvorne owned a 7-0 lead.

Brantley could go nowhere on their initial possession and was forced to punt. The punt was blocked, however, and Luvorne was right back in business on the Bulldog 5-yardline. It took Luvorne only two plays to score, with Johnny Stroud again notching the touchdown. This time on a one-yard plunge. Malo's extra-point attempt sailed wide, but with 1:36 left in the quarter Luvorne had upped its lead to 13-0. Brantley got its offense in gear on its next possession and moved all the way out to midfield, only to fumble. Brantley's Ricky Hall intercepted a Luvorne aerial on the Dogs' 15-yardline to stop the Tiger drive following the fumble, and Brantley started another drive. This time the Bulldogs moved out to the 43-yardline, only to be stopped on a fourth down play.

Ricky Hall "picked-off" another Luvorne pass only 3 plays later to give Brantley the ball with good field position, but time ran out in the first half with no further scoring as Luvorne went in at halftime clutching a 13-0 advantage. Brantley couldn't move after receiving the second half kick and was forced to punt. The Tigers got cranked-up following the kick and drove to the Brantley 18-yardline, but were stopped when the Bulldogs' Tim Burnett pounced on a Luvorne fumble at the 15. The Bulldogs punted after gaining no yardage on three plays, and Luvorne again started a drive. Johnny Stroud broke loose on a 58-yard scamper down to the Brantley 23-yardline to get the Tigers going, but the march was sidetracked once again on a pass interception by Brantley's Mark Hill.

Brantley's only scoring threat of the game came midway thru the final stanza when the Bulldogs reached the Luvorne 24-yardline, but it fizzled out and Luvorne took over on downs. The 2A Tigers weren't satisfied with their lead and drove to the Brantley 13-yardline late in the game, only to miss a field-goal attempt with :16 left in the game. At final hour, it was Luvorne 13 Brantley 0.

Luvorne quarterback Charlie Johnson (11) is sacked by Brantley's Tim Burnett (88) just before he could release a pass.

Brantley's Terry Pease (27) looks for the handle on the ball as he juggles a pass in the Bulldogs' 13-0 loss to Luvorne.

BY: GREG BRUNSON

The Samson Tigers used a high-powered offense, combined with a fierce defense, to claim their fourth straight shut-out victory of the season. This victory came over the Kinston Bulldogs who dropped to 3-2 for the season.

After an early exchange of punts, Samson started a drive from their own 31-yard line. Eric Johnson ran for 28 yards on the first play from scrimmage followed by a 40-yard keeper by quarterback Terry Chambers, which set up a first-and-goal situation on the one-yard line. Carl Tape bolted in with 7:40 remaining in the first quarter. Hubert Lane's conversion failed, so Samson led 6-0.

The next scoring came with only 1:10 to play in the first half. Herbert Lane received a punt from Jimmy Rodgers and raced 67 yards into the end zone. The run for a two-point conversion failed making the score at the half Samson 12 - Kinston 0.

Kinston took the second-half kickoff and was again unable to mount a drive. The Tigers opened their drive on the Kinston 47-yard line and 7 plays later found the endzone again. The score came when Eric Johnson fired a 10-yard halfback pass to Kenneth Owens in the end zone. This victory came over the Kinston Bulldogs who dropped to 3-2 for the season.

After an exchange of punts, Kinston started their best offensive drive of the evening from their own 43-yard line. This drive ended 9 plays later when Darren Smith had a pass intercepted in the end zone by Herbert Lane. The Bulldogs had the ball 3rd and goal on the four-yard line when the interception occurred.

Neither team could move on their next possession, which forced an exchange of punts. Samson took over on their own 45-yard line and wasted no time getting to the end zone, as Carl Tape sprinted 57 yards to paydirt. Chambers passed to Ernie Churchwell for the two points, making the score 28-0 with 8:32 to play in the game.

Kinston was again unable to move the ball and punted to the Tigers. Samson took over on their own 38-yard line and, instead of attempting to run the clock out, did their best to get to the end zone. With 3:40 remaining in the game, it was evident that the Samson coaching staff was running up the score. The starting quarterback was still in the game and they were running plays such as reverses and end-arounds.

With a second and goal situation from the four-yard line, Samson called a time out with :06 seconds remaining in the game. Carl Tape made his coaches happy with a four-yard run to the endzone with 1 second remaining. The PAT failed, so the final score was Samson 34 - Kinston 0.

I hope I haven't offended anyone with this article, but it is this reporter's opinion that the Samson coaching staff should consider how they would feel if the shoe was on the other foot.

New Brockton running back Glen Foster (21) is tripped up by a gang of Dozier tacklers in the Gamecocks' 18-9 loss.

Gamecock quarterback Keith Roberts (10) heads outside for a good gain in the clash with Dozier. Roberts, a senior, has led Brockton to a 3-2 record this season.

Louisville Remains Unbeaten With Narrow 14-6 Win Over Zion Chapel

The Zion Chapel Rebels saw a 6-0 halftime lead vanish under a second half rally and dropped a narrow 14-6 decision to the unbeaten Louisville Red Devils.

The win upped Louisville's late to 4-0, while the Rebels' saw their record dip to 1-3.

The Rebels came out fired-up in the opening stanza and stunned Louisville by marching in for a touchdown. The score came on a 4-yard plunge by Danny Chambers, and Randy Campbell kicked the extra-point failed. Zion Chapel had an early 6-0 lead. Neither club could score

The New Brockton Gamecocks were defeated by the Dozier Tigers in a very physical football game in Dozier last Friday night, by the score of 18-9.

The Tigers from Dozier were just too much for the troops from New Brockton to handle. New Brockton - a very physical football team - ran up against their equal as far as being physical goes. The Tigers were not only physical, but employed extreme speed on the corners to counter New Brockton's wide running plays.

New Brockton did enjoy some success on wide plays, but the majority of the Gamecocks' rushing yardage was gained from tackle to tackle.

The STATS proved to be fairly equal, but New Brockton played give-away ball again as they have all season long. The Gamecocks gave Dozier two touchdowns on a fumble and a minus 1-yard punt from their own 7-yard line which proved to be the margin of victory for the Tigers.

New Brockton has been playing "gift football" for the entire season. In football you cannot continue to give the opposition scoring opportunities time after time, and not expect it to catch up with you. It finally caught the Gamecocks, and they could not overcome this.

The Gamecocks took the lead in the first period on a 23-yard field goal by Kevin Weeks. The Tigers answered this by marching the ensuing kickoff in for a 6-3 lead in the second period. The try for two failed.

New Brockton appeared headed for some more points when an errant pithout was scooped up by a Dozier linebacker who went untouched up the sidelines 45 yards for a T.D. The try for two after the touchdown failed and the Dozier Tigers carried a 12-3 lead into intermission.

The Gamecocks kicked off the second half to Dozier. The Tigers could not make a first down and punted to New Brockton. The Gamecocks drove the ball to the Dozier 7-yard line, where they were hit with a clipping penalty on the line of scrimmage by one of their linemen. The drive stalled and Weeks was short on a 3.5-yard field goal.

The remainder of the third, and the early part of the fourth quarter was spent swapping punts until the Tigers drove inside the 10-yard line. New Brockton's defense came to life and held 4 downs on a valiant goal-line stand. The Gamecocks took over on downs on their 1-foot line, moving it out to their 7-yard line, where on fourth down New Brockton got off a minus 1-yard punt.

Dozier punched it across, taking three snaps to get the 6 yards. Again the try for two failed, and Dozier owned an insurmountable 18-3 lead, with less than 6 minutes left in the game.

The strong right arm of #10 Keith Roberts moved the Gamecocks into scoring position where Joseph Burrows carried it over from the 1-yard line. The try for two failed and the Gamecocks cut the score to 18-9 with 2:29 left in the fourth quarter.

New Brockton attempted an onside kick, but kicked it to the wrong side of the field where the Tigers then ran out the clock, claiming the 18-9 victory.

GAMECOCK PRIDE

BY: JIMMY JACOBS

The New Brockton Gamecocks, under 2nd-year Head Coach Leavy Boutwell, traveled to Dozier for their second road trip of this season, and found a buzz saw waiting for them in the Tigers from Dozier. The Tigers handed New Brockton their second loss of the season, making the Gamecocks' record now 3-2 on the year.

New Brockton, perhaps a little flat, did not play with the intensity they have displayed all season. Again, as in each previous game, the Gamecocks gave their opponent two quick and easy touchdowns. A team simply cannot keep fighting back each game from their own mistakes - be it fumbles, or just plain mental mistakes.

New Brockton's game plan for last Friday night's contest with Dozier was excellent. The Tigers did very little that New Brockton had not prepared for.

If two plays could be erased from the game, New Brockton would have won by a field goal; however, they cannot be, and the Gamecocks have to live with "what if" this had not happened.

The New Brockton Gamecocks will have a sound football team when they learn who their opposition is. They have been playing against their own mistakes, along with the other team's strength. The most important game that New Brockton will play is coming up this Friday night against Freeport. Homecoming, with all the festivities deserving of the event; however, the remainder of the season hinges on the performance of each player Friday night. The game Friday night will set the mental attitude for the remainder of this football year. The Gamecocks are coming off a disappointing 18-9 loss to Dozier, and they must instill back into their attitude that they are winners in every respect of the word, and not just participants of a game enjoyed by many.

Kickoff is set for 7:30 Friday night against Freeport.

Get the number of that truck! Dale County blockers Ronnie Dean (73) and James Jenkins (88) lay dazed on the turf as Elba's defense buries a Warrior runner. ## ELBA TIGERS SCALP WARRIORS 42-7

The Elba Tigers rolled to a 35-0 halftime lead and breezed to a lopsided 42-7 win over the winless Dale County Warriors, last Friday night in Midland City.

The win upped Elba's record to 4-0, while Dale County slipped to 0-5.

Dale County won the toss and elected to receive, but couldn't budge the Elba defense and had to punt. The Tigers put the ball in play on their 34-yardline, quickly crossed the midfield stripe on a 17-yard run by Don Horstead, but fumbled two plays later and the Warriors recovered. Dale County could do nothing against the Elba defense and had to punt on a fourth-down and 19 situation. The punt carried only 2-yards as the Tigers were right back in business at the 35-yardline. Horstead broke loose for another 17-yard gain on first down, only to fumble after being hit with Dale County again recovering.

The Warriors, who didn't make a first-down in the entire first half, again had to punt and this time punter Jeff Hutto boomed one 42-yards. Don Horstead took the punt on Elba's 33-yardline, headed up the sidelines and zig-zagged his way 58-yards all the way to the Dale County 9-yardline. Ted Horstead ran in standing-up on the next play and the Tigers were finally on the board. David Sutley's extra-point attempt was partially blocked and fell short, but with 4:01 left in the first quarter Elba was on top 6-0.

Three running plays left Dale County facing a fourth-down and 17, and Hutto again came in to punt. The Warrior punter got a good snap, but when he looked-up all he could see was Elba's Doug Daniels barreling in, and Hutto had to run. Elba's Hal Brunson tackled the punter on the 12-yardline and the offense came back in with excellent field position.

Fullback Bobby English blasted up the middle on three-straight plays, going 3-yards on the final run and reaching paydirt. Russell Kelley ran for the two-point conversion as the Tigerhead went to 14-0 with only 1:14 left in the opening stanza.

Dale County continued to try to run on the Elba defense, but were stopped cold, and on fourth-down and 23 called on Hutto to punt. This time it was Greg Hudson who put on the pressure, and the senior linebacker blocked the punt. Stewart Bane recovered the blocked punt to give the offense the ball on the warrior 14-yardline. An 8-yard pass from Mike Amison to Dale Simon carried to the 4-yardline after a short gain on first down, and two plays later Bobby English dove in from one yard out. Sutley added the p.a.t. to up Elba's lead to 21-0 with 8:27 left in the half.

The Warriors faced a fourth-down and 11 on their next series and this time Hutto did manage to get his punt off. Don Horstead took the punt on the 27-yardline, broke a tackle, headed for the sidelines and rambled 73-yards to a touchdown. Sutley's extra-point was good and with 5:43 left in the half, Elba's lead had grown to 28-0.

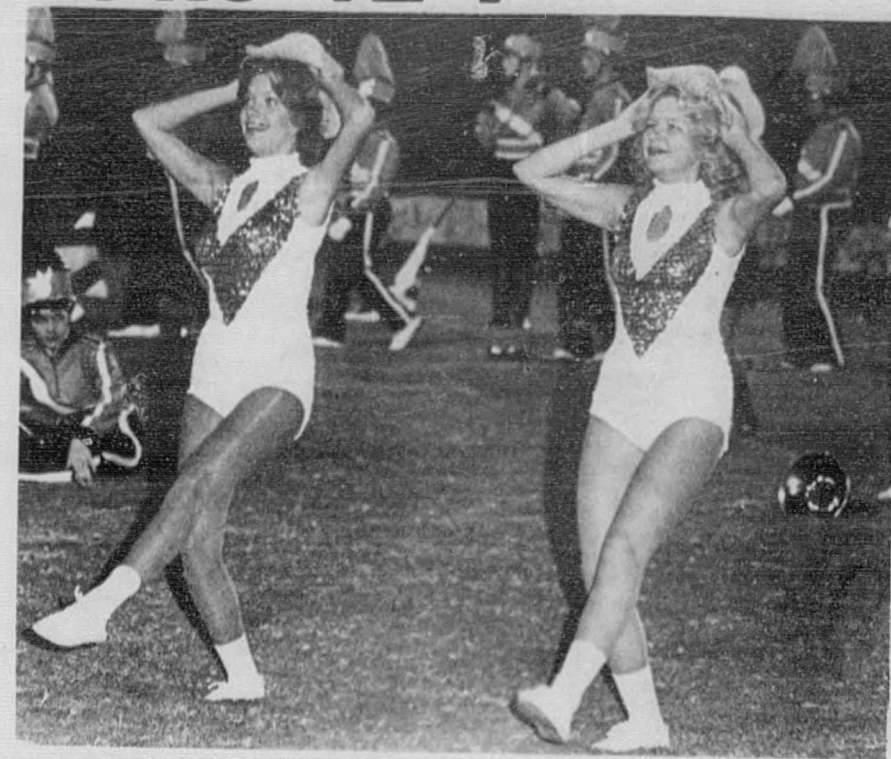

Dale County held the ball only one play on their next possession before fumbling, with Elba's David Sutley recovering the fumble on the 26-yardline. A 13-yard run by Mike Amison ate-up a large chunk of yardage, and two plays later Don Horstead swept-in untouched from 9-yards out for yet another score. The extra-point by Sutley was true, making the score 35-0 with 2:40 left in the half.

Elba's Ken Owens recovered a fumble to give the Tigers another scoring chance late in the half, but Elba didn't try to score and ran out the clock, holding on to a 35-0 lead. At halftime, Dale County had no first downs and minus 15-yards in total offense!

Elba fumbled the second half kick to give the Warriors an early break, but the defense again stopped'em and forced Dale County to punt. The fumble-plugged Tigers gave the ball away on their 31-yardline, and this time Dale County denied the scoreboard! The touchdown came on a 20-yard halfback pass from Bob Andrews to Todd McKnight, and Fred Densel added the extra-point to cut Elba's lead to 35-7 with 5:23 left in the third stanza.

Troy Brown returned the ensuing kick 33-yards to the Dale County 40-yardline, and Elba appeared to be headed for a score, only to lose another fumble at the Warrior 7. A short punt three-plays later gave Elba the ball back on the Warrior 39-yardline, and this time the Tigers took it in! Don Horstead scored on a 39-yard scamper one play later. David Sutley again added the p.a.t., and Elba was on top 42-7 with 1:52 left in the third quarter.

Dale County rolled-up some offense on a 56-yard march early in the final stanza against the Elba reserves, but neither team could score in the quarter and the final score was Elba 42 Dale County 7.

Plenty Of Chills & Spills For Everyone At Elba Go-Kart Track

The action was fast and furious at the Elba Speedway last Saturday night as 63 Go-Karts and Micro-Midgets hit the track for an evening of racing.

A total of seven drivers competed in the "7-8 Stock" class with Cindy Bryan claiming the checkered flag. Mike Armstead finished in second place, while Mark Gilbert placed third.

A full track of nine karts lined-up for the "9-13 Stock" feature, but it was little Scott Oglesby who ran away with the victory. Randy Strickland placed second, followed by Doug Bledsoe.

Only two drivers were in the "14 & Up Stock" class, with Scott Oglesby getting his second checkered flag of the night with a win over Mark Bess.

The "Micro-Midget" feature was a three car battle with lots of interest due to an upset in a heat race by Mike Marler, but it turned out to be a one-man show as Joe Daugherty was the only driver to reach the finish line.

The "14 & Up Stock" group was split into two 7-Kart races, and both provided lots of action. In the first race it was Bubba Gale winning over Gary Brown and Joe Holloway, while the second feature saw Bo Sauls post the win, with Don Tanner placing second, and Valerie Oggs, third.

The "Powder-Puff Derby" had a large field, but it was Barbara Oglesby claiming the win, with Debbie Parrish in second and Carol Cauley, third.

Four drivers entered the "14 & Up Stock" race, but only two karts went
